LEGENDARY K-ZONERS DOING LEGENDARY THINGS.

STEM SKILLS

Name: Raphael

Heroic feat: His school was one of eight in Australia chosen to participate in the NBN Co's STEMpreneur challenge, and took top honours with their idea!

FAST FIVE WITH RAPHAEL

K-Z: Hi Raphael! What idea did your school pitch to the panel of STEM experts?

R: Everyone decided on my idea; a remote device to fight bushfires. The Firefly drones are a swarm of drones that form a GPS map of hot spots in the fire area. Emergency Position Indicating Radio Beacons (EPIRBs) with heat sensors are dropped into the fire, so firefighters know where it's going. Information is also sent to aircraft so they can drop water.

K-Z: How did the school decide on the idea?

R: We thought of issues like bushfires, or plastics and litter, and invited our member of parliament to tell us which idea fit best with local community issues.

K-Z: Did students have roles in the team?

R: Yes, I was Chief Engineer and Chief Designer, and other people filmed and edited the pitch video.

K-Z: What did you learn from the program, and how did you react to taking top spot?

R: I learned how important STEM is for our future, and that we need to know what to do in a bushfire. We had a mentor, and met a drone expert from the university, an SES volunteer, people from NBN Co. and we Skyped Marita Cheng, a robotics expert! Everyone screamed after the announcement. I never thought we would win a national challenge!

K-Z: What should K-Zoners keep in mind when inventing using STEM skills?

R: You may need to go back on steps, but you will succeed. It's very cool coming up with ideas and solutions that adults haven't thought of yet.

NEWS FEED

BITE-SIZED NEWS FOR HUNGRY MINDS!

LEGO NEWS

With help from AI tech, LEGO sets will now be accessible to the blind and visually impaired! Visual instructions are usually used to build sets, but the new LEGO Audio and Braille Building Instructions will provide an audio instructions option, as well as the ability to follow steps from a braille reader. These alternative instructions are available online now for four LEGO sets, and the goal is to eventually create accessible instructions for all LEGO sets!

EDUCATION NEWS

A UK program called Digital Schoolhouse runs workshops at primary schools and e-Sports tournaments to help develop tech skills, and is using Super Smash Bros. Ultimate to teach! This year, over 60 schools and 6000 students will participate in the Digital Schoolhouse Super Smash Bros. Ultimate Team Battle school heats, compared to 5000 students last year! The rad tournament helps students learn about event production, managing teams and commentary.

IDEAS LAB

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING, ART AND MATHS!

Meet Lisa Harvey-Smith, an astrophysicist and author! As an astronomer, Lisa studies the stars and discovers amazing things nobody has seen before. Lisa has also written a new book called Under The Stars: Astrophysics for Bedtime!

K-Z: Hi Lisa! What do you need to know to be an astronomer?

L: I studied sciences including physics, maths and chemistry at university. I use scientific skills and maths, and use computers. We don't just look at stars and planets; we use computers to calculate how big, hot and far away planets are.

K-Z: What topics do you study?

L: I'm involved in studying how stars are born. Stars are incredibly hot globes of gas that shine very brightly, like our Sun, but the stars haven't always existed. The birth of stars is one of the processes I study using giant telescopes.

K-Z: Why is astrophysics important, and what can K-Zoners learn from your book?

L: Astrophysics tells the history of everything – from stars and galaxies to you and me. It tells us how we came to be and where we're going in the future. My book takes you on a journey through the stars. It answers questions you've always wanted to ask, like 'How much would you weigh on other planets?' or 'What would happen if you fell into a black hole?'

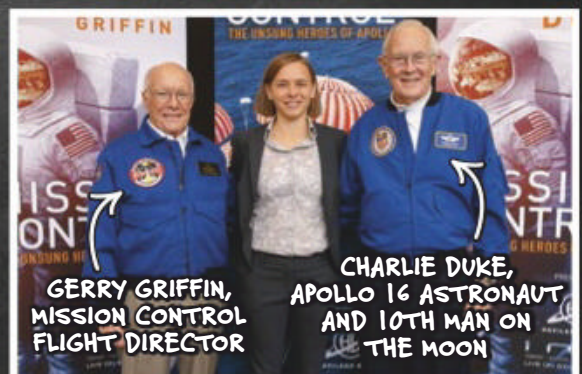

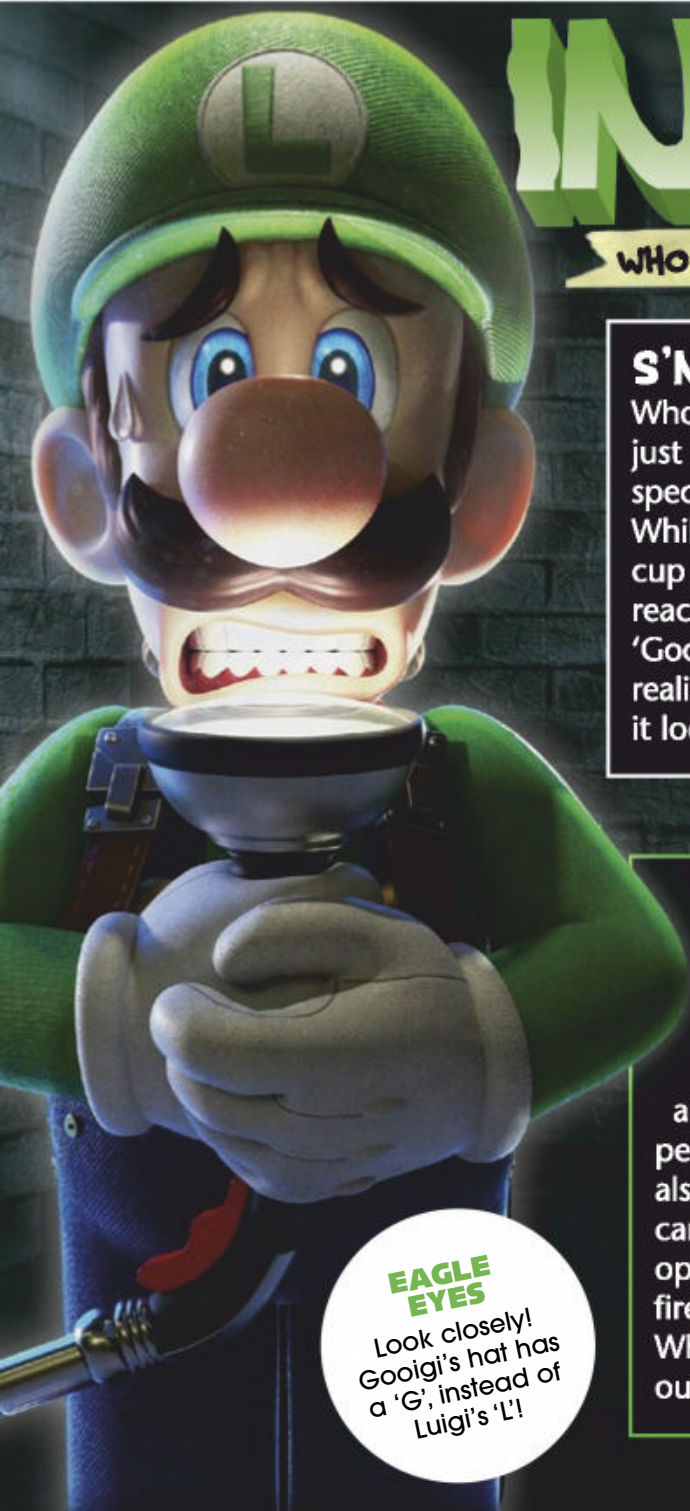

K-Z: Wow! What has been the highlight of your career so far?

L: Launching a new telescope that I helped to build was pretty amazing, and using it to weigh a black hole in another galaxy was even better. The most exciting thing I've done was when I appeared live on stage with Buzz Aldrin, who went to the Moon with Neil Armstrong in 1969 on Apollo 11 – the first moon landing!

K-Z: What advice can you give K-Zoners who want to work in a similar role?

L: If you want to be involved in studying space, you need to understand science and maths, and be good at figuring out how things work. I bet you're good at those things, but if you're not, practise and get better. Keep exploring and never stop asking 'Why?' Read books about the world and how things work. Good luck!

INVESTIG

WHO IS THE NEW TRICKSTER IN LUIGI'S LATEST ADVENTURE?

S'NOT A GHOST

Who is this snot-coloured character, and why do they look just like Luigi? Is it a doppelganger? A ghost? Nope! It's special energy, accidentally created by Professor E. Gadd. While experimenting in his lab, the professor knocked his cup of coffee into a vial of ghost energy! The substances reacted, and produced a new element that Gadd named 'Goo'. In order for Goo to chase ghosts, Professor E. Gadd realised it would need to take a human form, so he made it look like Luigi. Goo + Luigi = Gooigi!

SLIPPERY SKILLS

Gooigi may resemble and mimic Luigi, but it has unique abilities that Luigi doesn't, thanks to its Goo properties. Gooigi can slip through tight spaces, like grates, fences, bars, drain pipes and cracks, and it can walk over spikes. These skills are perfect for dodging booby traps! Gooigi also has weaknesses. The slimy sidekick can't open doors or turn knobs, but opening drawers is fine! Water and fire will also melt Goo, so beware. When Gooigi isn't active, it chills out inside Luigi's Poltergust G-00.

EAGLE EYES

Look closely! Gooigi's hat has a 'G', instead of Luigi's 'L'!

TIME TRAVELLER

Convinced you've crossed paths with this slippery character before Luigi's Mansion 3? Your mind isn't playing tricks on you. Gooigi first appeared in Luigi's Mansion for 3DS in 2018! Professor E. Gadd actually sent Gooigi back in time to study the way Luigi collected ghosts. The Luigi's Mansion 3 dev team had already designed Gooigi for co-op mode, and realised they could sneakily drop the gooey hero into the remastered Luigi's Mansion for 3DS. What a tease, a whole year before Luigi's Mansion 3 was released!

EATING GOOIGI

ATURE?

GOO HARD OR GOOIGI

If you play Luigi's Mansion 3 in multiplayer, you're in for a treat during ScreamPark party mode. Spoiler alert: it's Team Luigi versus Team Gooigi! Gooigis with different colours appear if you choose Team Gooigi in the battle to collect ghosts! At E3 2019, game producer Kensuke Tanabe teased a spin off game, featuring the different Gooigis. Sounds like a goo-reat idea to us!

LOVE YA LUIGI

Gooigi may be an exciting new star in Luigi's Mansion 3, but that doesn't mean we love scary-cat Luigi any less. Thanks to his new Poltergust G-00, he has rad tricks up his sleeve, like Slam and Suction Burst abilities. In single player mode, you'll jump between Luigi and Gooigi to complete challenges, in order to use each character's unique set of skills.

Luigi's Mansion 3 hits Nintendo Switch on October 31!

THE ADDAMS FAMILY

THEY'RE CREEPY AND THEY'RE KOOKY, BUT WHO ARE THEY REALLY?

Gomez Addams

Charming, sinister and completely in love with his wife, Morticia. He is a loving parent and also always excited about dreadful schemes that he has cooked up.

Uncle Fester

Good natured, merry and always in the middle of some mayhem.

Thing

This creature can usually be found helping the family.

Lurch

This giant is the Addams family's servant. He rarely speaks, cleans the house, and plays the organ.

Wednesday Addams

A brilliant and eerie girl with long braids, deadpan wit and a pet octopus. Wednesday is the brains of the family, often having to rescue them.

Morticia Addams

Devoted to her husband and children, Morticia is the glue that holds her clan together. Weird is wonderful in her home.

Pugsley Addams

Pugsley is a 10-year-old boy living a mischievous life. He is known for his pranks, like blowing up the bathroom floor while Uncle Fester is in the tub.

Grandmama

She loves to tell her grandchildren about her adventures, and shares the candy between her toes.

The Addams Family hits cinemas on December 5!

THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE ARCTIC

INTRODUCING THE COOL CAST OF ARCTIC JUSTICE!

GOOD

SWIFTY

This Taigasville native is courageous and always striving for bigger and better things. The young Arctic fox just wants to run with the big dogs, literally! Swifty's dream is to leave the Arctic Blast Delivery Service mailroom and become one of the sled dog couriers. In doing so, he gets more than he bargained for.

SWIFTY

DID YOU KNOW?
Swifty is voiced by
Jeremy Renner,
AKA Hawkeye!

JADE

Mechanically minded and smart as a fox, Jade is one of Swifty's closest friends. A talented mechanic, she's bored by small jobs and takes on tricky work, but unknowingly becomes a cog in her mystery client's evil scheme!

JADE

P.B.

Swifty's best friend and workmate is probably the opposite of what you would expect from a polar bear. P.B. is calm, thoughtful and gentle. Like all good companions, he does his best to steer his friend away from trouble, but this time, the steering is locked and P.B. has no choice but to go along for the ride with Swifty.

P.B.

BAD

OTTO

You won't find this walrus hanging around by the shore. Dapperly dressed and very self-assured, this evil genius plans on melting the ice caps, which would cause big problems not only for Taigasville, but the entire world. Swifty and Co. need to stop Otto before it's too late!

OTTO

PUFFINS

These feathered fiends aren't exactly the first animals you would expect to be involved in plans for world destruction and domination, right? Otto must believe in them, coz the puffins are his loyal army and henchmen.

PUFFINS

Arctic

GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS

SERIOUS BUBBLE BUSINESS!

LARGEST EXPLOSIVE SOAP BUBBLE DOME

Stefano Righi, AKA D'Artagnan, from Empoli, Italy, can form soap bubbles into mind-blowing shapes! D'Artagnan created a soap bubble dome with a 66cm diameter on February 20, 2018. It was filled with flammable gas, and the surface was lit with a flame. Don't try this dangerous trick at home – it's for trained bubble-ologists only! The talented artist also holds the record for the longest hanging bubble chain, after producing a suspended string of 40 bubbles on February 22, 2017!

A-LEGEND

A-LEAGUE'S BACK, SO WE CAUGHT UP WITH SYDNEY FC STAR, MILOŠ NINKOVIĆ!

The highlights of my career so far were playing in the 2010 World Cup with Serbia and beating Germany, winning the title with Red Star Belgrade in Serbia, and when we won the Hyundai A-League title with Sydney FC three years ago, breaking so many records.

I look forward to playing Melbourne Victory and Western Sydney Wanderers the most, because they are the two biggest games in Australian football.

I'm very good at playing videogames and being a gamer, particularly FIFA and Pro Evolution.

If you want to be in a professional team, play football as much as you can. Sometimes you'll want to play videogames, but you need to play every day. Even when you finish training, play with friends or by yourself.

A recent team prank was when Luke Brattan came in wearing brightly coloured trousers. Some team members put the trousers on top of the goalposts in protest. It's hard to pick the best prank; there have been so many.

If you want to improve your skills as a midfielder, work on your first touch, because that means everything as a footballer.

BACK-HEEL TRICK TIPS

A back-heel is a good way to get out of a situation when there are a few defenders around you. Using your best foot, drag the ball back into position with the bottom of your foot, and use your heel to hit the ball towards your teammate. If you practise and do it fast, your opponent won't be able to stop it.

MARVELLOUS AVENGERS

From an epic A-Day to a really bad day, no amount of 'eh' days can stop the capital A's from saving the day! Here's what you can expect when this massive game finally lands next year!

► HEROES REUNITED

Marvel's Avengers is a new Avengers tale, separate from the mighty movies and cool comics. Everything kicks off during A(vengers)-Day. New digs in a newfangled city come crashing down after an attack. Cap is down (but not out), and our heroes are being blamed!

► STARTING SUPERHEROICS

At launch, your Avengers roster will sport five familiar faces; Iron Man, Thor, Hulk, Steve Rogers as Captain America, and Black Widow. Fly, electrify, bash, punch and kick through epic showdowns!

► AVENGERS ASSEMBLY

More iconic heroes will join the rotating Avengers roster after launch. For free! We've already seen Hank Pym, the original Ant-Man. We reckon he's an Avengers contender. More MCU faves, like Hawkeye, will surely hit the release bullseye.

► NEW THREATS

It's not just new Avengers that are suiting up post-launch for free. There'll be new global regions, baddies and stories, for years! Players will battle their way through an ongoing comic series. Level up your heroes, switch teammates and fight your way to shiny new outfits.

► SWITCH-'EM-UP

Your avenging heroes are built to have unique brawling styles, but you can also mix 'em up in rad ways. Complete missions to level up, then spend that EZ XP on awesome abilities and cool combos. Plus, nab new gear to make your heroes even mightier!

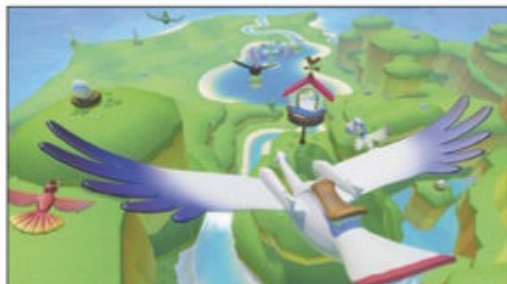

► BIG BADDIES

Epic games need baddies, like Abomination. The Hulk-sized supervillain was up to no good in The Incredible Hulk. Now, he's tearing up the town in Marvel's Avengers. There's also Taskmaster. Take him to task in Marvel's Avengers before he appears in the Black Widow movie!

GROUSE GEAR

We know the aim of the game is all about playing, but this hot hardware will take your gaming experience to the next level!

► LABO LIVES

Nintendo Labo is back with a whole new dimension of cardboard entertainment. Labo VR! It all kicks off with the Labo VR Starter Kit. Play (and make) rad VR games. Combo the buildable VR Goggles with the Toy-Con Blaster, then blast away alien invaders. The Labo VR expansion kits (or Complete Kit) add even more virtual awesome to your gameplay.

► COOL CONTROLLERS

The PS4's DualShock 4 is now available in four splashy colour combos, and the Switch won't be missing out on a colour clash, with the new Neon Purple and Neon Orange Joy-Con! If you want wireless gameplay over looks, try the customisable Xbox Elite Wireless Controller Series 2.

► CHOICE CONSOLES

A sweet Switch Lite with a Zacian and Zamazenta theme will appear on November 8. It combos cool colours with awesome Pokémon art. A regular Switch with better battery has also hit shelves! Hunt down the fully red Switch box for up to nine hours of gameplay. For an old-school gaming hit, plug into the full-size C64 from December 5, with 64 classic titles already installed.

DID YOU KNOW?

Industry legends Wan Hazmer and Daim Dziauddin reckon that there isn't enough focus on music in games today. No Straight Roads drops a beat to change the pace, but this isn't a rhythm game, like Guitar Hero or Rock Band. You'll be laying down neat lyrical smacks to sweet musical tracks.

ON:*PC*PS4*OUT:

EARLY 2020

NO STRAIGHT ROADS

With so many cool melodic bends, there's no need for boring straight roads in the musically charged action-platformer No Straight Roads!

It's fair to say that pretty much every game includes music, and an awesome soundtrack that makes moments feel truly epic. No Straight Roads takes the background soundtrack, dials the beats up to 11 and makes the music the main event. You will play as guitar-thrashing Mayday and drum-bashing Zuke. The brother and sister rock act lays down slaying tracks, to smash an awful army of out-of-tune threats across all kinds of groovy genres. Prepare for a furious fight against a deadly DJ dropping evil beats on a giant vinyl record. Defend against his nasty notes, and block 'em with perfect timing by staying in tune with his revolting remix. You're trying to show this dastardly DJ a battle of the bands that no one will ever forget. The more you thrash and bash through the levels, the more excellent upgrades you will be able to rock out to. Transform your musical duo into performers that own the stage and could easily sell out stadiums around the country!

DID YOU KNOW?

A rad playable nature documentary needs a sweet soundtrack, and AWAY: The Survival Series is rocking the right rhythms. Composer Mike Raznick has scored docos like Life and Planet Earth II, and also made sweet symphonic sounds for LEGO Bionicle and Ratchet & Clank. Hear, hear!

AWAY: THE SURVIVAL SERIES

Up, up, and away to a sugar glider's tiny view of a giant animal-packed planet that has to be soared through to be believed!

Captain America: Civil War, Doctor Strange, and Planet Earth II; three of the greatest action movies of 2016. Waaait. Planet Earth II? The deadly doco actually featured one of the best escape sequences of all time – not an opinion! Just a fact. A newborn lizard sprinted through an island overrun with starving snakes, and captured hearts around the world. In AWAY: The Survival Series, the lucky lizard is replaced by a brave sugar glider, on a snake-infested island – along with other threats. In AWAY, humanity has disappeared, but you will be gliding (and guiding) one tiny sugar glider through the challenges of the animal kingdom. AWAY is basically a playable sugar glider doco. You might be at the bottom of the food chain, but you can feel on top of the world, thanks to nature's tiniest hang-glider. Escape flames on the back of deer, snap up insects for snacks, and steer clear of scorpions, eagles and giant spiders.

PRO TIP!

GRID has a nemesis system that's easy to activate accidentally. If you play bumper cars with a racer (unintentionally or deliberately), there's a chance they will take it personally. If they do, they become marked as your nemesis racer. Avoid car bumps and scrapes with other racers to stay nemesis-free!

GRID

We reckon 'GRID' is short for 'get rid... of really long names for racing games so the title is as fast-paced as the in-game hijinks'. Phew!

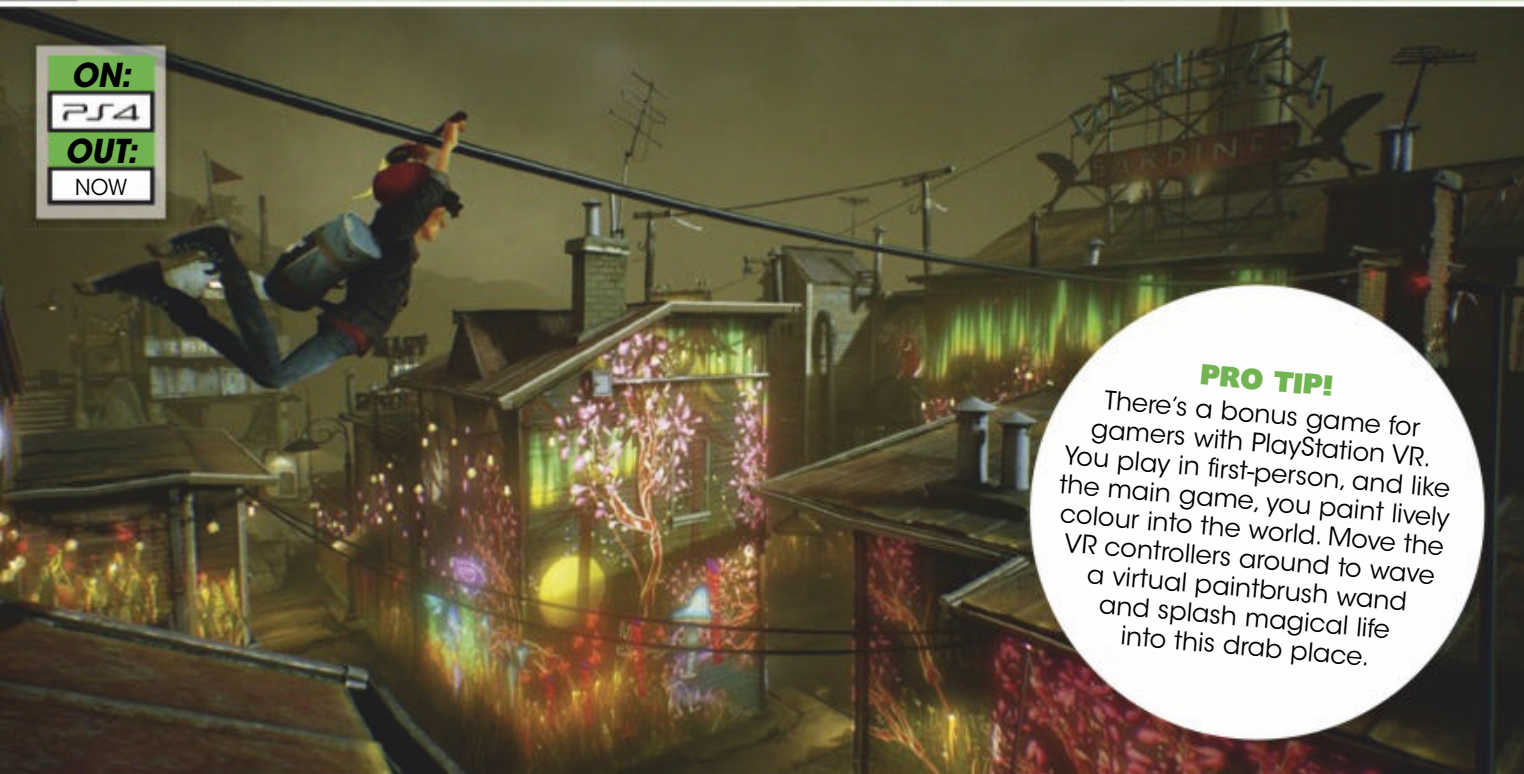

Tearing up the tarmac is the norm in racing games, but GRID Autosport has also sped up its own title, with the punchy 'GRID' zipping away from the pack. Ram a racer and you'll find a foe. Hire a racing partner, and then chase pole position together. Don't get too attached to your new mates. Some don't push corners, and others are a bit too aggressive. Find a fast friend that matches your race-day way the most. You will be fighting wheel-to-wheel battles in cramped streets on terrific tracks around the globe! Hold your breath during tight corner overtakes. Cheer as you zip past a bumper-to-bumper collision. Do it all at impossibly high speeds in possibly some of the coolest racing cars to zip out of a game garage. There are current high-speed rides, classic beasts, marvellous muscle cars and souped-up modified speedsters so spectacular, even Iron Man would do a double take if they raced by.

LUIGI'S MANSION 3

PRO TIP!

There's a bonus game for gamers with PlayStation VR. You play in first-person, and like the main game, you paint lively colour into the world. Move the VR controllers around to wave a virtual paintbrush wand and splash magical life into this drab place.

CONCRETE GENIE

Scribble me this. Scribble me that. In Concrete Genie, Ash's awesome art skills are where the real magic is at!

Genie in Aladdin is a rad magical lad. The genies in Concrete Genie have the magic, but some are totes badder than radder, while others are deffo radder than badder. Long before the Darkness arrived, the biggest problem in Ash's life was dealing with bullies. They have quibbles with Ash's rad scribbles! Nowadays, the threats are more monstrous. An oil spill means that Ash has to fight pollution with an artistic solution. Luckily, he has a magical paintbrush smattered with living paint. Help Ash use his noodle to save the whole caboodle (AKA his hometown, Denska) with sketchbook doodles. It won't be EZ. Ash has to battle bad-not-rad meanie genies in dark alleys, and those bullies are now ruining the polluted town with nasty graffiti. Clean up their act while you creatively clean up the streets. You should also hunt down the missing pages ripped from Ash's sketchbook by the bullies at the start of the game.

PRO TIP!

The most important part of bustin' ghosts in Ghostbusters: The Video Game Remastered is managing Proton Pack heat. If it overheats, you can't pack a punch while it cools. Switch weapons to manage heat, or get used to manually venting the Proton Pack before it overheats to stay in the fight!

GHOSTBUSTERS: THE VIDEO GAME REMASTERED

This remaster is so scarily awesome, the soon-to-be-busted ghosts will be spectral dust before they know what's hit 'em!

The phone's ringing. Who's there? Just King Boo asking for Luigi. Whoa. A few pages early for that ghostly appearance! It's OK, coz the real call is on the other line. For you. You're a ghost-bustin' Ghostbuster, buster, in Ghostbusters: The Video Game Remastered. This vers is a prettified take on the classic spirit shooter. It's an official sequel to the old school classic movies, too. You play as the Rookie, the newest Ghostbuster. New York City is being attacked, so strap on your iconic Proton Pack, coz it's time to teach these phantom invaders that this ain't their realm. The game isn't just about bustin', either. There is plenty of paranormal investigation to find hidden ghosts and haunted objects. Mostly though, it's about the ghost busting. From tiny ghosts to tricky ghosts, and (of course) giant marshmallow-man ghosts. All of the destructible environments make ghost hunting tons of explosive fun.

PRO TIP!

Certain stages have collectable coins. Focus on nabbing 'em first. It's easier if you hold the coin between players. Once you've netted the coin, focus on getting everyone to the exit, or swing and release the coin to net a basketball shot. Don't fret! The coin respawns if you miss.

HEAVE HO

When you're a head with arms, everything you need is going to be in your noggin (but having super strong muscles won't hurt) in order to blast through Heave Ho!

Heave Ho is probably one of the most fun party games we've ever played, and it's also a cinch to learn! This 2D puzzle platformer is actually all about the physics. There are just two things you need to worry about; grabbing and swinging. That's really it! You're only a head with arms, so use your IRL head to plot a practical path, and then use your in-game hands to grab on. Swing your way across the level to the exit. It sounds simple, but it gets really tricky, really fast. If you fall off screen, the character will splatter (Splatoon-style) and paint the stage. You can swing alone, but there are major laughs to be found when you play while hanging with friends. Up to four peeps can work together to trapeze through the tricky trials. First, choose a unique look from the stack of hilarious options. Next, link your virtual hands so you can swing and grab your way across levels faster, or just race solo to get there first!

LEGO DC SUPER-VILLAINS

Here's a trio of neat new tricks to help you blast past the many trickster minifigs and trophies of LEGO DC Super-Villains!

► MINIFIG MADNESS

Try these codes in the giant teeth in Joker and Harley's lair to get minifigs. Detective Chimp is 'BQWSG', Trickster is 'YRZMS', Hawkgirl is 'LNSB9', Blue Beetle is '8VV5Q', Martian Manhunter is 'Y7MFR' and Clock King is 'Z6AU7'.

► PLAYABLE PALS

Try these on the teeth for minifigs! Monsieur Mallah is 'GM9MX', Plastic Man is 'E6HUY', Red Robin is 'JNLPLY', Red Tornado is 'CKDRF', Dex-Starr is 'KFLQM', Firestorm is 'HFMHM' and Green Lantern is 'KNJ2P'.

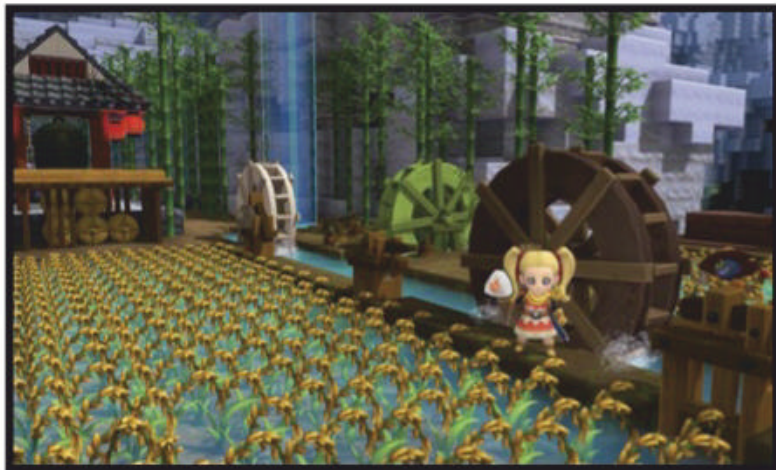

► TRICKSTER TROPHIES

Get Joker and Harley-themed trophies! As Joker, take a selfie with Batman to score 'The Enemy Within'. For Harley, nab 'The Harley and the Ivy' after you beat level 4. Replay this stage using minifigs with Mind Control, Grapple, Dig, Sonar, Detective Mode, Flight, Lantern or Explosives to 100% it.

DRAGON QUEST BUILDERS 2

Fly through this three step quest to turn up the heat and build on the already legendary gameplay of Dragon Quest Builders 2!

► MIGHTY WEAPON

It's worth doing all optional missions in Dragon Quest Builders 2, but beat the giant caterpillar in Furrowfield. The Poison Needle recipe has a chance of automatically beating any enemy with a hit, including the toughest bosses!

► STACKING GRATITUDE

Keep your townsfolk happy to score Gratitude points. Feed them, build rooms, create jobs, relocate and catch a Liquid Metal Slime for 100 Gratitude hearts. Instead of collecting the hearts manually, ring the town bell to collect anything you haven't nabbed!

► UNLIMITED MATERIALS

Farming for materials is fun, but you can score unlimited supplies. Play 'til you return to the Isle of Awakening (after Furrowfield), then spend hearts to visit the smaller island. Each island has a Scavenger Hunt that unlocks a stack of resources for a material!

Proudly tell a parent you've fixed the family car. When they start to question what you did, request that they test it. As the engine kicks over, your prank partner will make a noise into a dented soft drink can, to mimic a high-powered exhaust sound.

CLASSIC TRICKS

WE LOVE A GOOD PRANK! HOW MANY OF THE CLASSICS HAVE YOU ACHIEVED?

- ☐ Place a plastic snake so that the head or tail pokes out from its hiding spot!

- ☐ Covering an item (or many) with sticky notes.
- ☐ Whoopee cushion on a seat.

- ☐ Sticking fake bugs behind a blind or lampshade.
- ☐ Put a note saying, 'Cockroach under cup! Don't move!' next to a knocked over paper cup. After tricking someone with this prank, wait a while, then put another paper cup over a plastic cockroach. Leave the same note. Your prank victim will think it's just the same prank as before!

- ☐ Covering everything with aluminium foil, toilet paper or wrapping paper.
- ☐ Putting cling wrap across a doorway.
- ☐ Covering a mobile phone with rubber bands.
- ☐ Vaseline on a door handle.
- ☐ Fill a room with balloons.
- ☐ Tape balloons on the inside of a window, to look like the room is full of balloons.
- ☐ Doing anything while wearing a T. rex costume.
- ☐ Painting a bar of soap with clear nail polish and leaving it in the shower.
- ☐ Filling a corridor or staircase with cups full of water.
- ☐ Hiding behind a door.
- ☐ Adding a drop of food colouring to a milk carton.
- ☐ Hiding one shoe.
- ☐ Wearing a fake flower that squirts water!
- ☐ Using a fake water blaster that just says 'BANG!'
- ☐ Replace your family with strangers in framed photos.
- ☐ Fake fly in an ice cube.
- ☐ Wearing a bent arrow/fake axe/fake sword headband.
- ☐ Wearing a sheet and then pretending to be a ghost.
- ☐ Replacing the Oreo filling with toothpaste.
- ☐ Make fake ice-cream with mashed potato and gravy.
- ☐ Make some fake eggs with yoghurt and half a peach.
- ☐ Promise brownies, then bring in a tray of brown 'E's.

- ☐ If you have a pet, put fake poop where they usually sit. If you have a cat litter tray, put it on the floor beside it.
- ☐ Put fake poop on a bed, couch or pillow!

- ☐ Put a plastic snake in a box, with a note that says 'Don't look in this box!' or 'Don't touch!' and then walk away.

PRANK FAILS

WHEN PRACTICAL JOKES GO BAD!

SPY-DUH

Years ago, I had a pet tarantula called Jack. My younger siblings were scared of Jack, so he always came in handy for my pranks. One day, my little cousin came over. At lunch, I put the spider on top of his sandwich when he wasn't looking. He went to take a bite, saw it, and screamed so loud. It startled my auntie, who grabbed her newspaper and... Let's just say I wasn't happy.

Arachnid Kid, Qld

FART OUT

I put an inflated sandwich bag on my friend's seat, hoping to scare him and the whole class when he sat down. I was trying my best not to LOL and ruin my prank, but when he sat down, I couldn't hold in my laughter and I accidentally farted really loudly. You couldn't hear the sound of the bag popping over all the laughter after my own stinky slip.

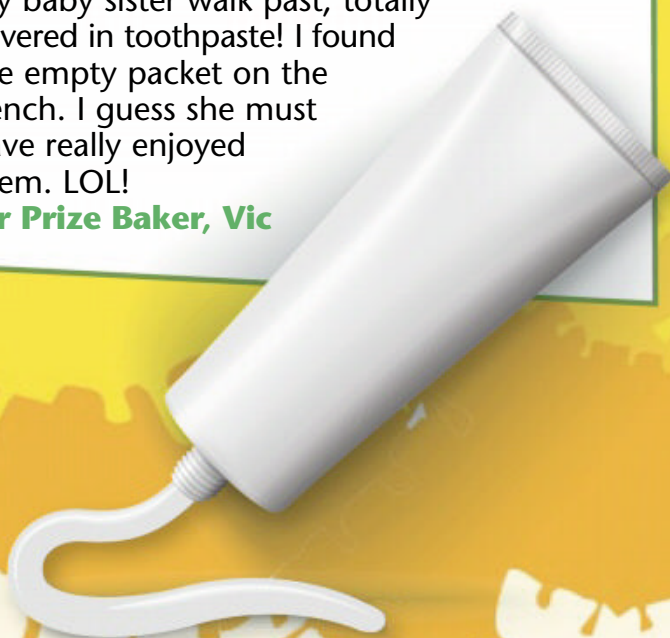

Flat Ulance, NSW

MINTY BICCIES

I tried that prank where you replace the Oreo filling with toothpaste, and did it to an entire packet. I put it back in the kitchen cupboard and totally forgot about the trick until I saw my baby sister walk past, totally covered in toothpaste! I found the empty packet on the bench. I guess she must have really enjoyed them. LOL!

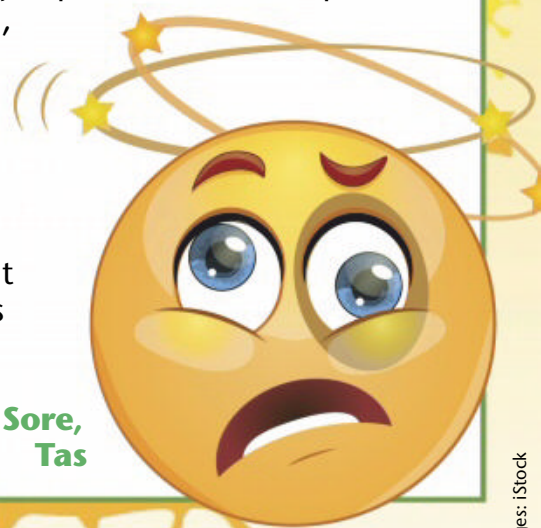

Sir Prize Baker, Vic

JUMP SCARES

My older brother is always really jumpy, so naturally, I take advantage of that. I usually creep up and scare him when no one else is around. One day, while he was making breakfast, I jumped out from a cupboard. He shrieked, but he also punched me in the face at the same time. I guess all my constant jump scares heightened his reflexes.

Sorry and Sore, Tas

THE BEAST WITHIN

Location: Vault-class container terminal.

Current status:
Abandoned.

By the moons of Gozgo, Commander Bridger!

I too am wishing I hadn't asked you to assist me with this deal!

It is most unfortunate that my droids are being repaired right now. They would be listening to my directions and complaining a lot less!

Now turn left at the next junction. Second cargo bay on your right.

You listen to me, Vizago...

If there's anything behind this door besides the shipment of proton torpedoes you've promised us, then Chopper there will introduce you to his spark projector.

Right, Chop?

WHUB-WHUB?

Urgh! I hate children.

I heard that!

Bridger, I keep telling you. My supplier is perfectly reliable.

If I had the entry codes, I would have docked in the bay where they left the merchandise and saved us both a lot of trouble.

Now call me when you find the crate. Vizago, out!

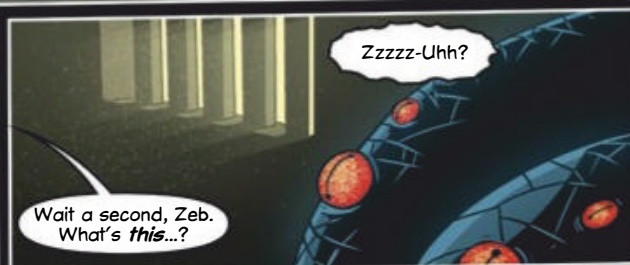

I don't know what's put you in such a bad mood, Ezra. But do you have to take it out on Vizago?

I don't trust him any more than you do, but the Alliance needs all the help it can get.

That's just it, Zeb! I don't feel like I am helping. At least, not helping enough.

No time to look! Let's go!

Argh!
Why's it
keep coming after me?

And don't say, 'it's because it likes the smell of Lasat.'

Slurrrrp!

Ezra?
Don't just stand
there-Agh!

Shrrrrrrrk!

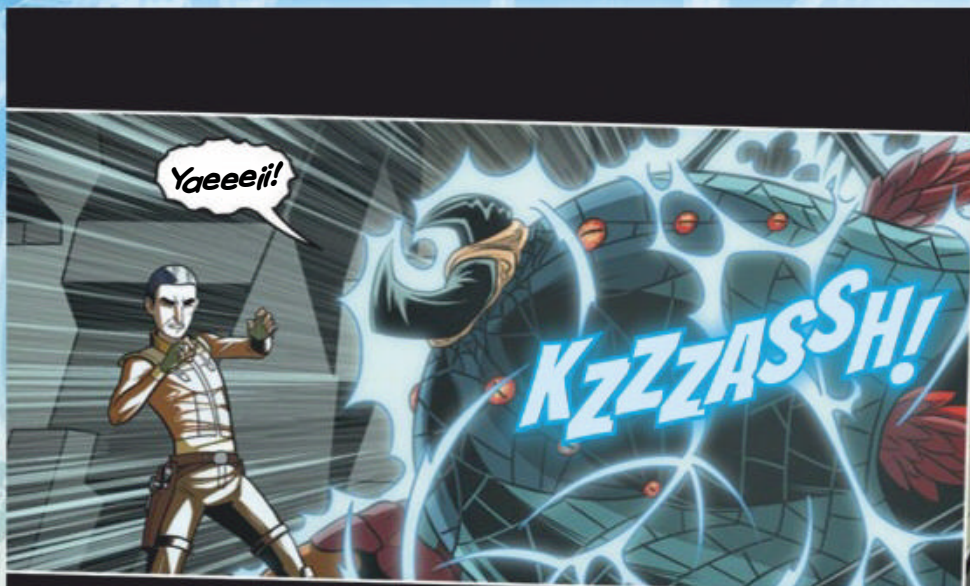

Umph!

Ezra, what are doing...?

Exactly what you told me...

Yaaaaa!!

KZZZASSH!

A K-12 stun cannon. A valuable antique. Good to know she's still in working order.

Now, please. Let us take this conversation inside.

No, Vizago. We can't just leave it here. Dangerous or not, it's an innocent creature.

I-I'm fine, by the way. In case anyone's concerned. Ungh!

Hmmm. You said this creature was sick?

Then perhaps there is a way Cikatro Vizago can turn this situation to his... I mean, our advantage...

Later...

I knew we were using the wrong darts. Where is the creature now, Vizago? Is it hurt?

I assure you, Madam Rynn...

"The khardax is safe and secure in my cargo hold."

Zzzzzzz!

End.
